Gene Tunney Trained Here For Famous Dempsey Fight

By BETSY ROSSEN

Back in 1927, one of the biggest events to capture America's attention came from the world of sports. For months nearly all that was discussed was THE fight: heavyweight champion Gene Tunney in a re-match against Jack Dempsey.

Tunney, 29, the "Fighting Marine," had taken the title from the "Manassa Mauler," 32, on Sept. 23, 1926. That had been a 10-round decision and now the "Battle of the Century" was at hand.

Chicago's Soldier Field was the place to be on Sept. 22, 1927, but excitement was generating long before - especially for the Antioch area when it was announced in mid-August that Tunney would train here. Cedar Crest Country Club, located just off Rt. 59 between Fox and Petite Lakes, was selected by manager Billy Gibson.

THE ANTIOCH News of Aug. 18, 1927, reported that the site was chosen after sharp competition on the part of many of the resorts, country clubs and private homes on the north shore and lake country. A.J. Cermak, president of the Cook County board and Otto J. Lehmann, who maintained a summer home on Fox Lake, reportedly played the major roles in "selling" the location to Gibson.

H.L. Brown and George F. Halas, managers of the lodge, and their staff worked hard to prepare for Tunney's scheduled Sept. 1 arrival. In addition to Cedar Crest, the champion was given access to other Fox and Channel lake courses. Chain O'Lakes Country Club members agreed not to use the course while the champion practiced

Grade School Referendum Set Oct. 18

The Antioch Grade School board of education has announced a building grant of $961,560 from the state capital development board, and has set Oct. 18 as the referendum date for the citizens' vote on the district's local share in the amount of $1.4 million.

The state grant stipulated that the local district must vote its share by Oct. 31.

The building proposal includes all of the Life Safety work at the Oakland and Antioch buildings, including libraries, and a new K-5 building to be located either on the southwest corner of the present CABL property or on the present Upper Grade School site.

The CABL property, which is seeking annexation to the village, is south of North Ave. and west of Tiffany Rd.

It is the board's present plans, upon completion of the building project, to have Oakwood Knolls pupils attend the Antioch Grade School, giving relief to overcrowded conditions at Oakland.

Children from the California, Felters, and North Shore subdivisions would attend the new school, as would the children now attending the Channel Lake school.

The state capital development board would not go along with putting any Life Safety money into the Channel Lake building, but will provide 60 percent of the necessary building funds for relocating the Channel Lake children in the new building.

Some attendance areas, such as Sequoit Terrace, will be determined at the time when the new school is completed. The exact attendance lines will depend on the total school district population at that time.

Plans are underway to hold a series of public meetings to explain the total proposal to interested citizens.

Upper Grade School Target of Thieves

The Antioch Upper Grade School was broken into and looted last Friday night.

The police report indicates that at least $1,600 worth of equipment was stolen.

The burglars took four cameras, valued from $200 to $500, plus other camera equipment and related items.

The first clue to the break-in apparently came at 7 a.m. Saturday when a motorist on Rt. 173 noticed a tape player discarded alongside a telephone pole. Two speaker-amplifiers and a video projector also were found.

Investigation revealed that entry to the school was gained

Tunney-Dempsey Fight

issues of August and September it would seem that the entire county was at the disposal of the "King of the Heavies." Whether, by coincidence or not, the Antioch Business Club got into the act, too, securing immediate completion of Rt. 59 paving in mid-August.

Tunney's personal party numbered 15. Telegraph, operators, newspaper men and others from the sporting world brought the total lodged at Cedar Crest to about 130. Fifty wires were run from the training site to carry news about the champ's progress.

A BOXING ring arrived from Chicago Aug. 17 and was set up near the club's riding pavillion. The great crowds that flocked to watch the boxer "wallop his sparring partners" were accommodated by 10,000 circus seats. Though no admission was charged for the daily arena workouts, admission to the club grounds was by pass only.

So important was Tunney's arrival to the area that the Antioch News printed an extra edition a few days before his arrival on Sept. 2. In that issue the training at Cedar Crest was called "the greatest single publicity stunt that the lake region has ever had."

Manager Gibson arrived on Tuesday and Tunney on Friday from his preliminary training in Spectacular, N.Y.

Said the manager, "Gene will be rarin' to go after his trip here from New York and will undoubtedly take a good workout Friday afternoon. He is ready to go now - he could fight next Monday." The genial Gibson was said to "wax warm in his enthusiasm over Tunney's prime condition."

THE CHAMPION'S long-awaited training began, covered closely by reporters of the day. He was termed camera shy, objecting mildly but firmly to being photographed too much at the club.

A Sept. 8 account read, "Tunney just can't do those impossible things, such as posing in some freakish fashion merely because the cameraman wants him to. The champ seems to realize that training to fight a desperate Jack Dempsey is serious business. So it's taboo for the comic stuff." Tunney was no Muhammad Ali.

At last, Sept. 22 came. Time:

An 18th century English pugilist was so insensitive to pain that, for a small sum, he would allow anyone to strike him on the side of the face with all his force.

9 p.m. Place: Soldier's Field. Estimated attendance: a sell-out crowd of 150,000. Estimated gate: $3 million. Champions' winnings: $1 million. Challenger's winnings: $450,000.

Everyone was an expert, predicting a knock-out victory for his favorite. Dempsey's condition was considered by some to be no match for the champ, the Antioch News declaring "it's a cinch that age and high living have not improved him, nor can it be presumed that three or four months of intensive training have made him good enough to win where he once lost."

THE RESULT of the big fight was a 10-round decision for Tunney, but not before the famous "long count" which may have saved him. Though Tunney was down, referee Dave Berry started the count over until Dempsey would remain in a neutral corner.

Dempsey, the former champ, announced his retirement after the fight; Tunney, the following year. But memories of the battle between the "fighting Marine" and the "Manassa Mauler" may last forever.

CABL and Schools; What's Happening?

The Antioch village board decided Monday night to find out what is happening in negotiations between owners of the CABL property and local school officials.

Representatives of the two groups will be invited to next Monday's 7 p.m. meeting of the village board's planning and zoning committee.

The CABL group, which owns land west of Tiffany Rd. and south of North Ave., is seeking annexation to the village. CABL's attorney, F. James Lumber, has asked for action on the annexation petition.

CABL has offered 10 acres of land to the schools, which wanted to take soil tests to determine if the land was "buildable."

"I have 'word of mouth' that the tests agreed the land was buildable," said trustee Mike Haley. "I know for a fact that the village board is going to be faced with CABL offering land and the schools having to decide."

Mayor Bob Wilton said, "we should see a report of the soil tests. It seems enough time has been allotted so that the schools should decide whether they want the land or not."

IN OTHER action, the village board opposed Gov. Dan Walker's veto of $940,000 in funds appropriated by the legislature to combat flooding through a window that had been broken by a rock.

Once inside, the thieves did some minor ransacking of two offices and then broke into the school's shop area by breaking a wire screen.

IN ANOTHER INCIDENT LAST Friday night, someone threw a rock through two windows at Al's Citgo station, 561 Main St. The cost of replacing the windows was estimated at $350.

Antioch firemen were called out last Thursday at 3:30 p.m. to put out a fire at Kull Welding, 344 Park Ave.

A worker, Jeff Gutowski, 18, was treated for burns from his wrists to elbows on both arms.

The fire apparently started by a gas tank that was soaking in a solution bath, the police report said.

BARRY GOLDWATER

Who Is Behind
The CIA Rumors?

By SEN. BARRY GOLDWATER

At the present time it is virtually impossible to get a kind word about the CIA and this country's intelligence community published in an Eastern newspaper.

At least that is the experience I have had as a member of the Senate select committee to investigate charges of wrongdoing by the Central Intelligence Agency in recent years. I have repeatedly expressed my concern over what could happen to the security of our nation if we succeed in completely wrecking the CIA and other intelligence activities.

Although I have stated flatly that so far in the Senate's investigation I can see no instance where the CIA has done anything but act on orders to insure security of the United States, not one word of this statement was carried in Washington and New York newspapers.

PERHAPS THE reason is that I raised the question of how it happens that new material on the alleged shortcomings of the CIA is leaked to the newspapers every time the intelligence furor shows signs of subsiding.

Some newspapers and commentators have gone to ridiculous lengths in their efforts to capitalize on the CIA inquiries. A case in point is the whole episode concerning former White House employee, Alexander Butterfield. In a frenzied attempt to show that the CIA had infiltrated the President's own staff, the media did a great disservice to a man whose record of public service is unblemished.

This kind of rush-to-judgment on the part of the media is not helping legitimate efforts to get to the bottom of allegations that some of our intelligence activities are illegal or unjustified.

IT COMPLICATES the efforts of congressional committees by confusing the issue with sensational headlines which have nothing to do with the actual facts under investigation.

But my argument is not with the press and the news media. I know how they operate and do not expect them to pass up any news stories that appear legitimate. The question I want to raise is whether there is some purpose behind these recurring reports and rumors of CIA perfidy. If I were writing the script for a story of conspiracy to destroy the American intelligence community, I would take my material from the events which began the day the New York Times published a story to the effect that the CIA had kept files on 10,000 Americans in an alleged departure from its assigned task to function only overseas.

LOOKING AT this train of events closely, we find that the investigations, far from quieting the alarm, became the excuse for floating all kinds of charges against the CIA, the FBI, even local law-enforcement bodies.

I should like to know more about the identity, the backgrounds and the purposes of those who float hot rumors every time the CIA furor in the media shows signs of running its course.

The Town Crier

WHEN ANTIOCH'S firemen defeated the village employees 12-11 in their recent softball game, the village lineup included two players who also are firemen.

They are Scotty Lowe and Jim Krieger.

The firemen plan three more softball games this season, including duels with the Jaycees and the Lake Villa fire department.

Lowe and Krieger naturally would be expected to join the Antioch firemen for those games, but Dale Frasch, Ronnie Vos and Les Zitkus told us the other day that "if Scotty and Jim want to play for us they'll have to pass the tryouts."

THE GAME between the Firemen and the Jaycees will be a real grudge match. A date hasn't been set yet, but it seems the Firemen beat the Jaycees in donkey basketball last winter and now the Jaycees want to win their beer back.

GENTLE SOUL that I am, it isn't often I get angry. But I lose my cool (ever so slightly) when I drive into a gas station and notice on the pump that they're selling it for about 63.9 cents a gallon.

The other day I drove in, saw the price, and pulled right out. A mile away I found I could buy it for 56.9.

In nearby communities some stations are selling gas for 53.9 and 54.9 cents a gallon. Why not in Antioch?

I wish others would join me in this crusade. If we refuse to buy gas at those inflated prices, what are they going to do? Lower the prices maybe.

LAST WEEK I played golf with one of the longest hitters and one of the best putters in Antioch.

"But, unfortunately," said Mike Haley, "it wasn't the same person."

Mike was the long hitter. He won a new golf bag in the "longest drive" contest on the 3rd hole at Fox Lake, where the Grant Township Bicentennial tournament was being played.

Mike's drive on that hole traveled about 285 yards. Then, as the day progressed, he proceeded to hit three other drives even better. They must have measured between 290 and 300 yards.

Bill Seemann, another of our village trustees, was the best putter I've seen this year. From 6 to 15 feet he nonchalantly knocks them into the hole with an aplomb that would frighten Jack Nicklaus.

If we could put Mike's drives and Bill's putts on the professional tour, we could win a lot of money, folks.

OUR FOURSOME also included Attorney Jim Lumber.

Congress May Be
'Out of Step'

A nationwide poll conducted by Opinion Research Corporation shows that the great majority of citizens desire U.S. military superiority over the Soviet Union and are willing to pay for it.

The survey apparently demonstrates that the American people have different views on national security issues than believed by official Washington.

The poll found that 76 percent believed the United States should have greater military strength than the Soviet Union, as against 21 percent who would settle for something less and 3 percent who are undecided on this question.

CLC Offers Keyboard Shorthand

Secretarial students attending the College of Lake County during the fall semester may now elect to learn shorthand on a keyboard machine.

Cliff DeBates, CLC business division instructor, said the new touch shorthand course will help graduate better-trained all-round secretaries.

The touch system can aid students in one of the most interesting areas of secretarial education, the taking and transcribing of shorthand notes, he said.

"Our touch shorthand students will learn to take their shorthand notes on a small, lightweight keyboard machine that in effect does for shorthand what the typewriter did for handwriting," DeBates said. "Called the Stenograph shorthand machine, it lets the student write a whole word or phrase with a single keyboard stroke. Experience has shown that transcription accuracy is improved because the 'touch notes' are clearly printed in easily read English letters." "Now our students can devote more attention to developing other vitally important secretarial skills such as grammar, punctuation, vocabulary, spelling and other specialized skills," he said.

Sequoit VFW Auxiliary

The Sequoit Auxiliary VFW met Aug. 11.

Ellen Flint, chairman of VFW children homes is preparing material to have a "bakeless" bake sale to assist in the needs of the homes.

Olive Hallwas and Lillian Burnette reported on the 5th District meeting. The 1976 membership cards have been received and dues are now payable at $3.50 a year.

Members of the Sequoit Post attended, explaining their activities to obtain a VFW building. The auxiliary agreed to assist them in working for a building.

Lillian Burnette served birthday cake for Ida Wysoglad. The next meeting will be Sept. 8 at 8 p.m.

The souvenir postal card has become such a nuisance that Uncle Sam has taken steps to discourage the fad. Manufacturers have gotten bolder and bolder, the result being that the mails have been carrying cards that are not fit for inspection in polite society.

The beautiful "Dreams of Fairyland" juvenile cantata, consisting of songs, marches, drills, tableaux, etc. will be given in the Antioch Opera House on Friday evening, Aug. 25. Adults 25 cents, children 15 cents.

and pollution in the Chain o' Lakes and the Fox River.

A demonstration is planned at Korpan's Landing in Fox Lake to oppose the Walker veto and have it over-ridden in the next session of the state legislature.

Called an "Anchor In," the demonstration will be held Sunday, Aug. 31, at 11 a.m. and will attract citizens coming by both boat and automobile.

"Let's put a big boat out there with Antioch village officials on it," Haley said.

"I'd like to see all of us there," said Wilton. "We're very much a part of the Chain and should lend our support to the demonstration."

THE BOARD also decided Monday night to buy a salt spreader for use during the winter. It will cost $1,775 and can be attached to a village truck.

Walter Shepard, superintendent of public works, said it will enable one man to spread salt on streets throughout the community during a small storm.

"It will eliminate the tremendous amount of sand we now spread and also save wear and tear on our sweeper, which is probably the most expensive machine we have to maintain," Shepard said. "The money we spend will be saving in manpower and maintenance."

THE VILLAGE officials also voted to send a letter to the state

Along the way with ANNIE MAE

One more week and all the kids will be back in school -- hear tell some mothers are planning a luncheon for all those whose last little one will be gone all day. I get the feeling however, that the kids are just as glad as we are to get into a routine.

Speaking of going back to school -- registration for School District 34 is today at each school in the district, noon to 3 p.m. and 6 to 9 p.m.

Wendy Jensen came home for the weekend and was greeted by her parents Bob and Shirley Jensen wearing their grandma and grandpa shirts. Bursting with excitement, they announced the birth of their first grandchild, Justin Mathew, born to their daughter Melanie and her husband Glenn Crellin in Springfield, Virginia. The little guy was born on Aug. 15, weighing in at 7 lbs. 10 oz. Needless to say, grandma and grandpa are planning a trip very soon.

The Teeley household has been brightened with the arrival of Brendan Peter on Aug. 1. He tipped the scales at 8 lbs. 2 oz. Big brother Christopher, 3, sure is proud of the little fellow. Congrats Mike and Chris!

MAYOR WILTON spent the weekend at the State Fair in Springfield attending the annual Mayor's Day activities climaxed by a luncheon with Governor Dan Walker on Saturday.

Hear tell Paul Zeien did a super job as general chairman of the Benedictine Sisters Annual Chicken Dinner last Sunday, held on the convent grounds. The food was delicious as usual and there couldn't have been a more perfect day for eating outside.

Best wishes to Phyllis and Jim McMillan who celebrated their 49th wedding anniversary last Friday. Phyllis could hardly fit in the celebration what with doing eight shows at the Milwaukee State Fair this weekend. Boy Phyllis, I sure wish I had half your get up and go! These fairs seem to keep all the family busy - Jim's dog won first place in the recent Lake County Fair photo contest.

Have you got your costumes all finished for the bicentennial theme costume contest tomorrow night? Sounds like the merchants have quite an evening planned! Also, be sure to stop by the water tower at 10:30 p.m. for the pajama judging contest.

Condolences to the Richard Miller family.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN V. Horton entertained quite a group at a picnic on Sunday, Aug. 10. Out of town guests were Myrtle Huffendich, Los Angeles; Edith Jansen, Racine, Wis.; John D. Horton and family, Dwight, Ill.; Jay Horton, San Marcos, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Smock, Trevor, Wis.; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mather and family, Burlington, Wis. and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Lancour and son of Troy Center, Wis. Also attending were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Horton; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Lutz and family, Pat, Joan, Mike and Marilyn Harmon and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Horton. Quite a gathering of the clan I'd say!

A speedy recovery to Edith Elms who is in Victory Hospital.

Birthday greetings to Ken Wierschem on the 21st, to Jerry Smouse, Les Zitkus and Gus Costoff on the 22nd, to Gigi Spittle, Doug Palaske, and Tom Gutowski on the 25th and to Phyllis Good on the 26th. Belated wishes to Vicki Mikula who celebrated on the 17th.

Extra special birthday wishes to Jan Besson on the 25th. Going golfing, Jan?

Miss ya Pol - those pictures were great!

Teachers' Workshop On Monday

About 250 teachers and administrators will attend the annual Cooperative In-service Workshop Monday, Aug. 25, at Antioch Community High School.

Participating schools are: Antioch, Antioch Elementary, Emmons Elementary, Grass Lake, Lake Villa Elementary, Faith Evangelical Lutheran, St. Peter Elementary and Prince of Peace Elementary.

This year's program will be under the direction of Michael D. Teeley, Environmental Education Project Director, District 34.

The morning sessions will center on the work conducted by Mr. Teeley and selected teachers from local schools who have been working since June, 1974, developing and testing instructional units for use by teachers from kindergarten through high school.

Mr. Teeley's background includes BS and MS degrees from the University of Michigan plus extensive experiences as consultant to schools and other public agencies in Ohio from 1969 to 1974. From 1971 to 1973 he was consultant and project director for the Toledo, Ohio, Public Schools Environmental Education program.

JOHN TERESI Chevrolet-Oldsmobile BRINGS YOU

AUG. 25-31, 1975

Will swap this day for one in May.

Mend your fences now . . . Nathan F. Leopold (murderer of Bobby Franks) died Aug. 29, 1971 . . . Last quarter of the moon Aug. 29 . . . Torrents of rain broke the great Southwest drought Aug. 31, 1932 . . . Average length of days for the week, 13 hours, 22 minutes . . . U.S. soldiers land in Japan Aug. 28, 1945 . . . Lies must have clothes, but the truth goes naked.

Ask the Old Farmer: They tell us that the contact of heat and cold causes thunderstorms. It may be true, but did you ever know of this combination causing trouble in any other manner? H. G., Springfield, Ill.

Yes. As a boy we were drafted to fill the wash boiler, bailing the water from a rain barrel because our women-folks believed that rain water was "softer" for washing. Once, during a cold snap, the water in the barrel was low, but there was a cake of four-inch ice in it which we felt would add to the supply when melted. So we brought it into the house, and because it wouldn't fit in the boiler, we sort of balanced it on the top in the belief that as it melted it would settle and slide in. Well, it settled all right, but it landed on top of a red-hot kitchen stove and we have seen many a thunderstorm that was far less disturbing than the passage that immediately followed.

Grass Lake Enrollment Up to 315

Grass Lake Grade School will begin classes Tuesday, Aug. 26, with about 315 students in kindergarten through eighth grade.

Last year's enrollment was 307.

Classes will begin at 8:45 a.m.

The school has three new teachers - Miss Paula Ann Albergo, in second grade; Steven Miklautsch, teaching social studies in the upper grades, and Miss Marilyn Olson, specializing in learning disabilities for all grades.

Gene Paulausky has replaced William Hart as superintendent. "We're going to have a new organization in terms of developing the program," Dr. Paulausky said. "I'm an administrator, but my first love is program, and we're going to organize it a little better."

He said learning materials will be assessed to see which methods are most successful and that the school will try to provide challenges for top students and specific kinds of help for all students.

"All students learn differently in different ways," he said. "We will try to provide them with the skills they need to survive in a changing society and become independent learners."

of Illinois, urging the issuance of a permit that would allow work on the proposed Sequoit Creek enclosure.

After members of the United Methodist Church opposed the enclosure project, the state asked for a special meeting which attracted 75 persons to the village hall.

The state asked for proof of easements, which trustee Haley says the village provided. The permit to proceed was expected a week or two ago, but repeated calls to Springfield have brought no action.

"Enough time has elapsed and we're asking the state to expedite our permit," said Mayor Wilton.

THE CONTRACT for the Depot St. water main extension and Anita St. main replacement was awarded to the firm of Kuch and Ingram, of Russell, for $66,280.

A letter from village attorneys has been sent to owners of the Willowdale property, west of the Little League field, telling them to clean up and haul away items that may be hazardous to children playing in the area. They have until Friday to comply.

THE NEXT board meeting normally would fall on Monday, Sept. 1, but because that is Labor Day it will be held on Tuesday, Sept. 2 at 8 p.m.

Sideburns get their name from civil war General Burnside, who had quite a pair.

ANTIOCH'S VFW POST has launched two projects - a building fund and a drive for new members. Money is being raised by a paper drive and by placing "building fund" jars in local business establishments. Posing with the jars are (from left) Richard Burnette, quartermaster; James Egem, fund-raising chairman, and Robert Bywell, senior vice-commander. A trailer donated by Cunningham Cartage has been parked at Turner Dr. and Cunningham Rd., near the village garage. Papers can be dropped off there, or persons can call Mr. Egem at 395-5512 to arrange for pick-up. To raise funds for a building, the club is raffling off bonds of $100, $50 and $25. Persons interested in joining the VFW can attend an 8 p.m. meeting on Tuesday, Sept. 9, at the First National Bank.

CHANNEL LAKE CHATTER

Don't forget to register your children today at the Channel Lake school. You can do so this afternoon from 1 o'clock until 3 and tonight from 6 o'clock until 9.

Congratulations to Debbie Sweatman and Patrick Smith who became Mr. and Mrs. on Saturday, Aug. 9, at St. Francis DeSales Catholic Church in Lake Zurich. Debbie is the daughter of Mrs. Josephine Sweatman and was given away by her brother Bob, who was home on leave from the Air Force. She was attended by her four sisters, Pam, Penny, Sheri and Melody. The happy couple will make their home in Wauconda after a honeymoon trip to Florida.

Wayne Bobo is recuperating at home after undergoing surgery last week in Victory Memorial Hospital. He is getting along just fine but I'm sure some cards from his friends and neighbors would help cheer up his confinement.

MANY AREA families returned from vacations last weekend. Don and Barb Bjork and daughters Judy, Janet and Jackie spent last week at Camp Delton, Wis., visiting friends Jim and Jeri Morton and family. The John Runyard family and the Bob Lemke family spent last week at the Runyard property in northern Wisconsin. While there the Lemkes visited former resident Les Lindberg. Virg and Gene Rudolph and children spent a long weekend at Castle Rock, Wis.

Julie and Jim Gutowski, Chris and Ingrid Lindberg, Jim and Kathy Pierce, Cindy and Sherri Irmien and Carl Doty spent last week at the High School Band and Choral camp in Bloomington. The only complaints the students had were running out of money and not getting enough to eat.

JEFF GUTOWSKI is a very lucky young man whose guardian angel was working overtime last Thursday afternoon. Jeff received first and second degree burns on both arms and a head full of singed hair in a gas explosion at work. The accident could have been much worse. The fire department had to be called to put out the fire.

Congratulations to former resident Ted Portalski and his wife Carol who welcomed their third son on Aug. 14. Little Jeffrey Scott tipped the scales at 7 lbs. 12 oz. and is 21 inches long. Baby Jeff's big brothers, David, 9, and Mark, 7, are very eager to help care for him. The baby's grandfather is Lou Portalski and the nephew of this reporter. Ted and Carol receive the Antioch News at their home in Tacoma, Wash., every week and enjoy keeping up with the local happenings.

As an example of what's possible, one may board in Waikiki either Bus No. 5 or Bus No. 8 to Ala Moana Shopping Center and transfer to a Kaneohe-Wahiawa Bus for a 4-hour circle island trip via Pali, Kailua, Kaneohe, the Polynesian Cultural Center, North Shore, Haleiwa, Wahiawa.

Chain of Lakes Group Meets Here on Friday

A regular meeting of the Chain of Lakes-Fox River Commission will be held at Antioch High School at 1:30 p.m. Friday. A sign will be posted in the main entrance for room designation.

William E. Brook of Antioch is chairman of the 13-member commission and John Jerry Murphy of Fox Lake is executive director. The group includes laymen and legislators.

The commission was created by Illinois law to combat flooding and pollution in the river and lakes.

The commission will discuss Gov. Dan Walker's veto of a commission-endorsed bill for a $940,000 appropriation for channel improvements and dredging.

Democrats Plan Big Day

The Lake County Democratic Party's Golf Day and banquet will be held Wednesday, Sept. 10, at the Tally Ho Country Club in Vernon Hill. (Rt. 45, southeast of Mundelein).

Golfers will start teeing off at 7 a.m. and there will be tennis and swimming for those who don't play golf.

Tickets are available at Democratic Headquarters (215 Madison St., Waukegan, 244-2870) and the public is welcome. Cost for the day, including dinner is $20.

Lavern wanted to know more about his job. So he went to our "college."

Lavern Danley isn't your typical college man. For one thing, he's 27, married, with two children. And he's been out in the world working for 10 years.

But since he's been working for Commonwealth Edison, he's developed a new interest in higher education. Lavern recently attended Commonwealth Edison's after-hours school. It's our own little college, where more than 700 employees are enrolled in nearly 50 courses, from shorthand to nuclear power fundamentals. All at a nice price—free to any employee interested.

Lavern took courses on transformers, math, and mechanics. And what he learned in the classroom, he puts to work on the job.

Example: After studying transformers at night, Lavern works on them during the day, down beneath the sidewalks of the Loop. By knowing what to look for, he can fix a small problem before it becomes a large one.

"There's no doubt about it. What I learned at school helps me do a better job," says Lavern. "And the way I see it, when the work gets done better and faster, that keeps costs down for the company. Which helps keep the rates down, too. Which is good for everybody."

Antioch High School - 20 Years Ago

By BETSY ROSSEN

Remember when every grade school kid had to take a box of Kleenex? And every year held the promise of seasons of marbles, yoyos and jacks? And classes always started the day after Labor Day?

We're not sure about the Kleenex, very doubtful about the games, but one thing has changed: opening day for schools.

What was school like for Antioch children and their parents 20 years ago? A look into the Antioch News' autumn issues of 1955 gives some idea.

SCHOOLS OPENED Tuesday, Sept. 7, that year, and Gov.

William Stratton and the Chicago Motor Club issued the traditional pleas to motorists for increased alertness and reduced speeds.

Enrollments in the Antioch schools were, of course, much lower than those of today. High School Principal Albert Dittman announced that 473 were registered for the first day, with an increase to 485 expected within 10 days.

Antioch Grade School classes began that year with 612 students, compared to 597 the previous May. Grass Lake and Channel Lake schools also experienced increases, reporting enrollments of 104 and 133, respectively.

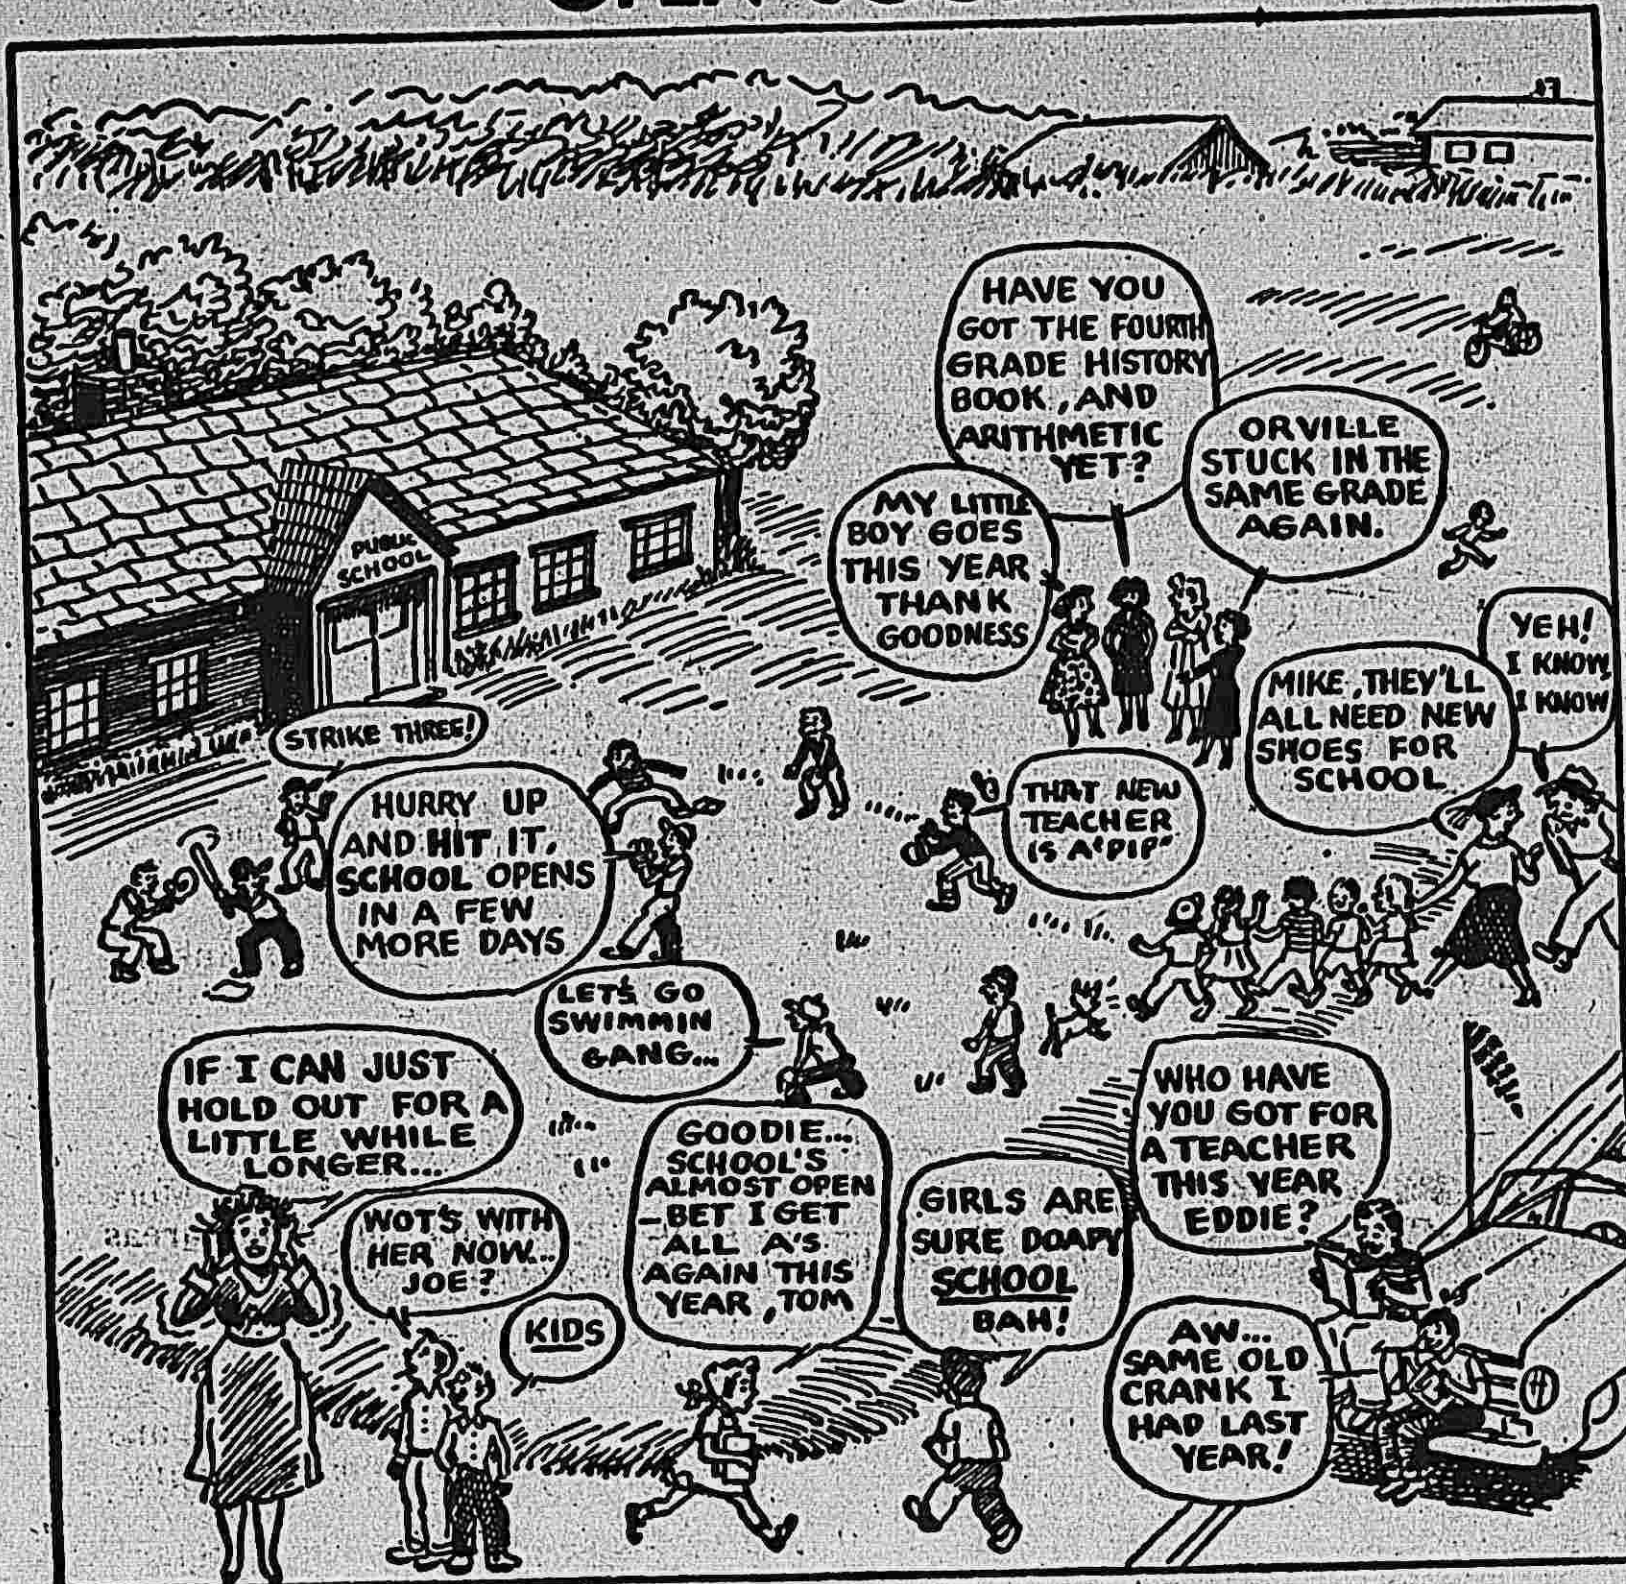

St. Peter's School had 387 children, and opened classes with the school's first lay teacher, Mrs. Harry Greenlee.

Antioch Man Dies in Crash

A 34-year-old Antioch man, Donald J. Schneider, was killed last Thursday in a two-car collision at Grand and Poplar avenues in Fox Lake.

Schneider, an off-duty Round Lake Park policeman, lives at Rt. 1, Indian Point, Antioch.

The Fox Lake Rescue Squad said Schneider was pinned in the wreckage. The other driver was a 26-year-old Spring Grove man. Schneider probably died of massive head and internal injuries, a deputy coroner said.

He was born in Chicago in 1941 and lived in Antioch for many years. He was a member of St. Peter's church.

Mr. Schneider is survived by his wife, Juanita, and a son, Timothy, 14.

Funeral services were held Monday from Barr Funeral Home and Colonial Chapel. A requiem Mass was held at St. Peter's.

Mental Health Group Meets Again Sept. 8

The next meeting of the Antioch Mental Health Association will be held at 8 p.m. on Monday, Sept. 8, at Lorenz' Smart Country House.

Mrs. Ray Lorenz, president, has urged all members of the association to attend.

The group will discuss ways to keep open Granger Hall at the Grove School. The hall houses 45 multiply-handicapped young people and is in danger of being closed because of increased operating costs.

Ray Young Baffles Foes At Waukegan

Ray Young performed his Sunday night magic tricks at Waukegan Speedway to win his sixth late model feature race.

The feature, punctuated by four red flags, saw Young catch early leader Hal Davis in the 10th lap and then maintain a slim lead over runner-up Carl Major to the finish. Davis later hit the wall in the 20th lap, avoiding a spin by Bob Dotter.

Ron Parker of Chicago changed engines after blowing Saturday night and raced to his first trophy dash win Sunday. Heat race wins went to Dotter and Kemperman.

Jim Naset was again the big winner in the hobby stock class as he came from 18th starting position to pass Larry Cash for the win in the final corner of the 12-lapper.

Racing continues this weekend with four feature races on Saturday night plus "Beat-

Your-Neighbor" racing added to Sunday's card. The Twin-50 program on Sunday night, Aug. 31, will end the point race.

FANS WERE just settling down to a night of late model and hobby stock car racing at the Waukegan Speedway Saturday night when thunderstorms swept the track, forcing postponement of the feature races until this Saturday night.

There will be no increase in admission for the special program which will include four features: two 30-lap late model events and two 12-lap hobby features.

WITH THIS KIND of power at the plate, it is hard to understand how the Rotary Club of Antioch lost its softball game to the Jaycees, 11-1, last Friday. Stu Olson displayed this classic swing, and his leadership as the team's catcher was an inspiration to the Rotarians. But apparently they needed more than inspiration.

Jaycees Donate Winnings to Rescue Squad

The Antioch Jaycees announced Monday that they are donating $50 to the Antioch Rescue Squad.

The money was earned last Friday when the Jaycees defeated the Rotary Club 11-1 in their softball game at the Little League Park.

Each team had put up $25.

Bob Dubs, president of the Jaycees, and Bill Anderson, chairman of the game, praised their star-studded lineup for a magnificent performance.

The Jaycees are getting ready to try to beat the local firemen in an upcoming game.

A spokesman for the Rotary Club, who asked to remain anonymous, said the Jaycees were good sports in last Friday's game. If it hadn't been for their generosity in allowing a Rotarian to serve as umpire, the game might still be going on.

the Pfarr Corner

Jaycees Very Lucky

By JERRY PFARR

Member of the Rotary Club of Antioch

In a nip-and-tuck softball game played at the Little League park last Friday night, the young Antioch Jaycees lucked out and defeated the middle-aged Rotary Club.

But as the old-time sports writers used to say, the game was closer than the score indicates.

The game wasn't over until the last Rotarian was tossed out while waddling toward first base.

The score was 11-1, or something like that, but the Rotarians gave a simply inspiring performance. They went down to defeat like the champions they are. (Or were at one time.)

The old sports writers used to say that baseball is "a game of inches." If this were true, the Rotarians would have won, because they averaged 40 inches around the waist to the Jaycees' 32.

Also, had there been a weigh-in before the game, Rotary would have won by a ton.

THE GAME was strategically scheduled for Friday night so that some of the Jaycees' super stars couldn't appear. Terry Folbrink and Roman Vos, for example, had to tend to their businesses downtown.

Still, the Jaycees luckily managed to gain an 11-0 lead. This is hard to explain because the Rotary pitchers, Chuck Forster and Jim Hamlin, served up a truly dazzling array of stuff. It's amazing that the Jaycees swatted those pitches all over the park.

Our chances might have been better but I was benched after two innings in which I made two errors in right field and grounded out in my only time at bat. But I was just getting warmed up and, had I been allowed to continue, I am sure I would have hit at least three home runs and made several sparkling defensive plays.

I hate to admit this, because he works for The Advertiser, but Dick Paddock made the most sensational catch of the night in centerfield. (He bobbled the ball once or twice, but only to give the fans a more exciting show.)

The Rotarians finally managed to score a run in the ninth, but only after Vern Thelen had negotiated with the Jaycees to allow Rotary to start the inning with a man on third base.

PREVIOUSLY, I don't think Rotary got anybody past second. Bill Stanley claims he hit a double, but some of his teammates missed it because it happened at exactly the same time the beer was arriving in the dugout.

The Rotarians found it difficult after the game to select a "most valuable player." Homer White said he deserved the honor because he made the most errors.

Perhaps Stu Olson deserves the honor because of his superlative performance as catcher for the Rotarians. He kept calling out plays to his teammates, and these plays probably would have won the game, except there had been no practice sessions so nobody knew what he was talking about.

Bob Motto, a Rotarian, worked as umpire and along with Stu Olson made the decisions on "balls and strikes" and "safes or outs." This undoubtedly kept the Jaycees from scoring more runs.

The most popular player of the evening was Tony Starcevic, who is a member of both clubs but played all nine innings for the Jaycees.

The Rotarians will reward Tony for his loyalty when they meet Thursday noon at the Brave Bull.

A FULL FIELD of super modified stock cars will be on hand Sunday night, Aug. 31, at Lake Geneva Raceway. The super modifieds were, previous to this year, regular weekly competitors at Lake Geneva where Toff Auto Racing of Antioch has presented only stock cars this season. The super modifieds use full-race engines and most will be burning a blended fuel rather than gasoline. Their speeds are much higher than those of the late models due to their engine and chassis design. Saturday night racing will continue through September and into October depending on weather and fan support.

Jack Ester Now 2nd at Lake Geneva

Heavy rain showers caused postponement of last Saturday night's stock car competition at Lake Geneva Raceway.

Even without racing action, Jack Ester of Antioch found he had moved up to second spot in point standings over Larry Hicks, Lake Geneva. An error in point totals was discovered and now Ester can put his sights on point leader Al Schill.

The late models will be back in action again Saturday night. Sunday night racing has just two more weeks remaining.

Sunday, Aug. 24 will feature the final All-American late model sportsman stock car racing. Cars from several speedways will race in two 25-lap features for the season championship.

Wayne Lensing, Rockford, swept the events at Lake Geneva Raceway Sunday as he set fast time, won his heat race and moved around Dale Brandenburg, Janesville, on the last lap to win the 25-lap "Battle of the Speedways" feature.

The feature had cars from the Hales Corners Speedway, Jefferson Speedway, Kenosha County Speedway and the Lake Geneva Raceway all trying for the win. Brandenburg is a regular at the Lake Geneva oval and had led from the start.

The finish was the best ever seen on a Sunday night and it came with a record number of fans attending the program which produced a record 101 cars that raced to nearly midnight.

Women's Golf League Ends Its Season

The State Bank of Antioch's women's golf league was scheduled to wind up its season yesterday.

The first place team of Ginny Cornelius, Lou Vos, Dorothy Tiester, Annette Lubkeman and Mary Carney was expected to win the championship.

But they were being challenged by the second place team composed of Irene Teresi, Marge Recupido, Irene Hahn, Terry Klazak and Barb Eberman.

Tied for third were two teams. One included Nancy Berchtold, Joyce Knigge, Eugene Nissen, Fran LaPlant and Ronnie Stromberg, while the other consisted of Eileen Zannini, Bev Reckers, Esther Jacobsen, Anne St. Pierre and Lorraine Severson.

Many Worried About Standard Of Living

Despite strong optimism about future business conditions, many north suburban residents expect difficulty in maintaining their present standard of living during the next year, largely because they're getting less for their money.

In the latest Family Financial Survey, released by Continental Bank of Chicago, one-third of the north suburbanites said it would be more difficult in the coming year for them to keep up their current standard of living, even though three-quarters reported their family income had increased or remained the same over the past year.

The survey included residents of Antioch, Lake Villa and Lindenhurst.

Almost three-quarters said they weren't getting their money's worth from the products they purchase, while half said they got their money's worth from services purchased.

The survey sampled the sentiment of Chicago metropolitan area families living in suburban Cook, DuPage, Kane, Lake, McHenry and Will Counties.

The number of north suburban residents who expressed optimism about business conditions in the Chicago area one year from now - 57 percent - was up from last quarter's 46 percent who expected an upturn in business conditions.

More than half - 57 percent - said their families are in the same financial condition as a year ago, with 15 percent responding "better" and 27 percent responding "worse."

Sentiment was related to age and educational background: 40 percent of the respondents 65 years and older said "worse," compared to less than one-third in other age groups, and one-third of those with college degrees reported "better," compared with only 16 percent of those with a high school education.

More than half of the north suburbanites - 57 percent - reported no cutback in their use of credit cards, but 31 percent said they had reduced credit card usage over the past six months. More than two-thirds expect to maintain the same level of credit card usage over the next year.

PATRIOT YEARS

From the Pennsylvania Packet, Philadelphia, in the spring of 1775, 200 years ago:

An Express arrived at five o'clock this evening, by which we have the following advices:

WATERTOWN — Wednesday morning, near 10 of the clock.

To all friends of American liberty, be it known, that this morning before break of day, a brigade consisting of about 1,000 or 1,200 men, landed at Phipps's Farm, at Cambridge, and marched to Lexington, where they found a company of our Colony militia in arms, upon whom they fired without any provocation, and killed six men and wounded four others.

By an express from Boston we find another brigade are now upon their march from Boston, supposed to be about 1,000.

The bearer, Trail Bissel, is charged to alarm the country quite to Connecticut; and all persons are desired to furnish him with fresh horses, as they may be needed.

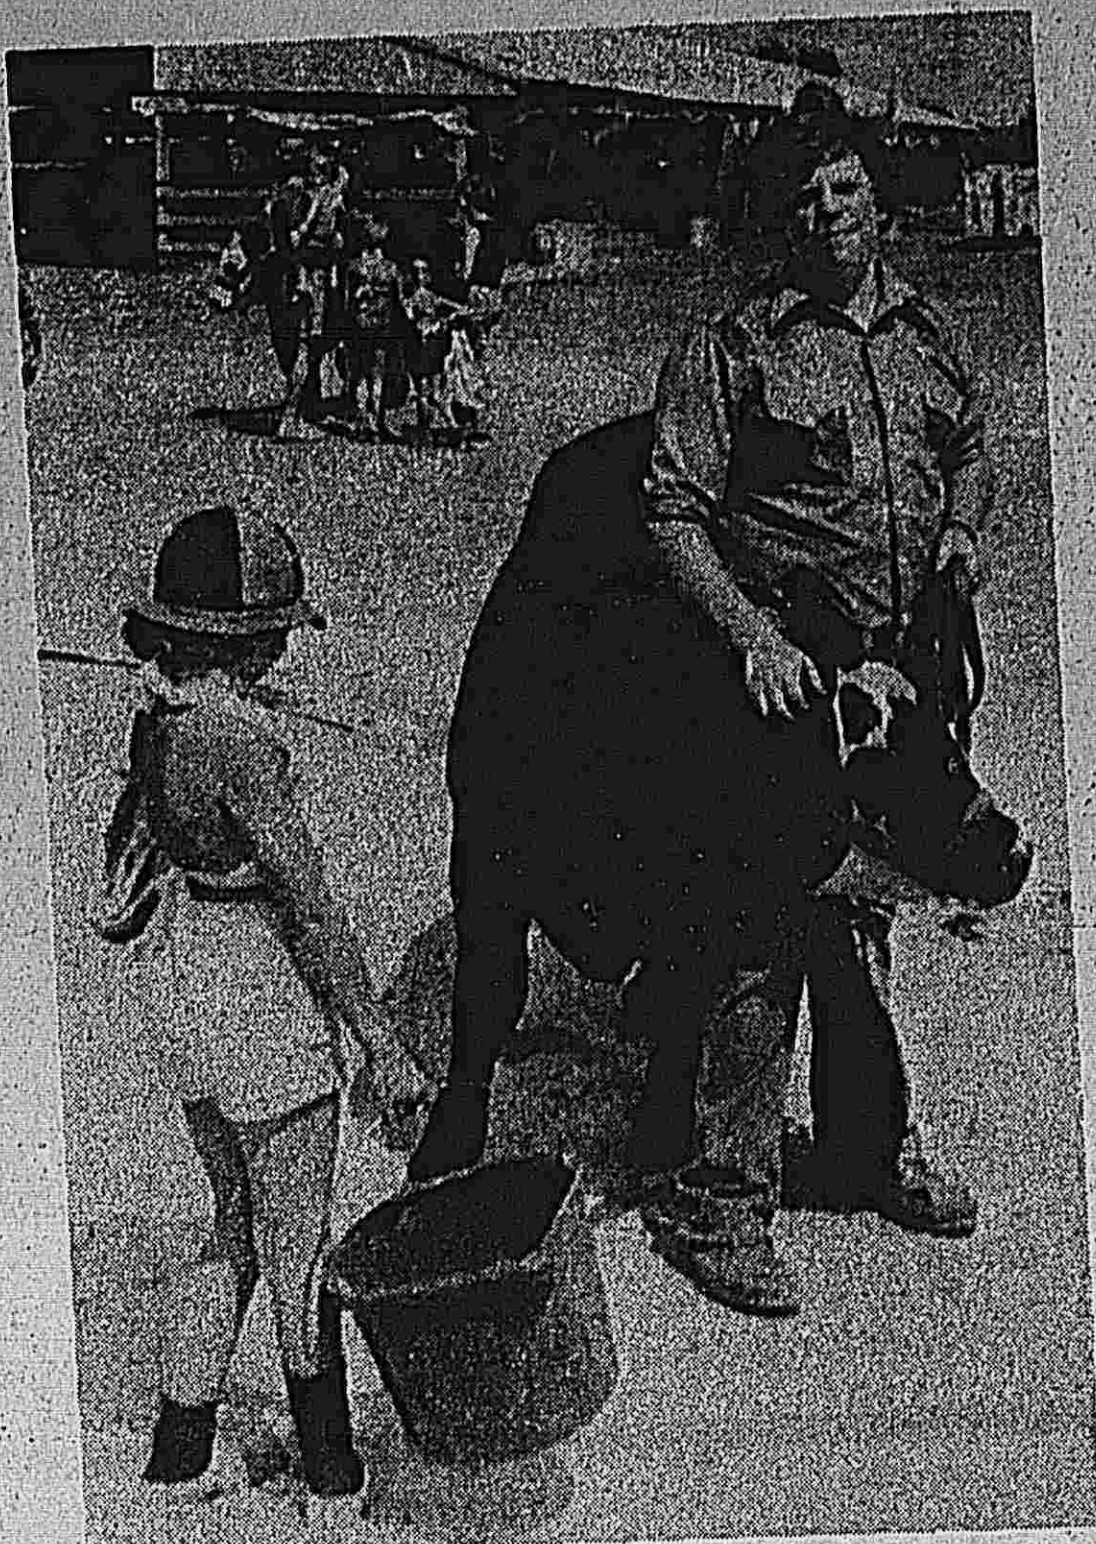

I have spoken with several who have seen the dead and wounded.

Pray let the Delegates from this colony to Connecticut see this, as they know

J. PALMER,
One of the Committee.

A true copy from the original, per order of the Committee.

STEVE THELEN of the Chain o' Lakes 4-H club had two prize-winning steers at the recent Lake County Fair. Above, he is pictured with one of them while his sister Peggy, 8, assists in caring for the animal. Steve's other steer was the heaviest in the livestock sale, weighing 1,205 pounds and selling for 64 cents a pound. Steve, 14, said he used to name the animals, but that made them harder to give up. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Vern Thelen of Fox Lake.

AN INTERESTING golf shot? You can have this one if you play Bristol Oaks Country Club, 10 miles east of Antioch on Wisconsin Hy. 50. Most of the shots at Bristol Oaks are easier, of course, and the 18 holes are a delightful test of golf. Sunday brunches and Friday evening fish feasts are among the highlights of the 19th hole.

PATRIOT YEARS

tee of Correspondence of Worcester, April, 1775.

Attested and forwarded by the Committees of Brookline, Norwich, New-London,
Lyme, Saybrook, Killings-worth, E. Guilford, Guilford, Brandford, New-Haven.

Since the above-written, we have received the following by a second express:

THURSDAY, 3 o'clock,
P.M.

To Col. Obadiah Johnson,
Canterbury:

SIR,

I am this moment informed by an express from Woodstock, taken from the mouth of the express, then two of the clock afternoon, that the contest between the first brigade that marched to Concord was still continuing this morning at the town of Lexington, to which said brigade had retreated.

the SOVEREIGN STATE of AFFAIRS

BOYD and Wood

That another brigade had, said to be the second mentioned in the letter of this morning, landed with a quantity of artillery, at the place where the first did.

The provincials were determined to prevent the two brigades from joining their strength if possible, and remain in great need of succour.

N.B. The regulars when in Concord burnt the Court House, took two pieces of cannon which they rendered useless, and began to take up Concord bridge, on which Captain —, (who with many, on both sides were killed) made an attack upon the King's troops, on which they retreated to Lexington.

I am,
E. B. WILLIAMS.

The above is a true copy as received per express

Immaturity needs mature treatment

The master of ceremonies of a recent quiz show was interviewing an older couple.
He found that they had recently been married, and he asked them for the details of their romance. The bride explained that they both had been married before, took a deep breath and added "to each other." She quickly explained that because of their extreme youth, their mari-riage had come apart.

"Just what made you two decide," the M.C. asked,
"that you were meant for each other after all?"

"Well," explained the bride, "our young daughter wrote a composition in school entitled, 'I wish my father would marry my mother.'"

The fact of life is that unless there has been some maturing on the part of both parents, the same discouraging pattern will reappear, and their daughter will be wishing again that her father would remarry her mother.

In my premarital counseling, I use a picture which is a pen drawing of a bride and groom. Standing beside the groom is a second figure. It is the groom at the age of 12.

Beside the bride is herself when she was 12.

The lesson is that the bride may be a bright, mature and rather sophisticated young lady, but there will be times in the marriage when she will act in an immature, selfish manner, and for all intents and purposes, be downright brattish.

The groom may be the man of the bride's dreams — strong, mature, romantic, but in the close living of married life, there will be times when he will be short-tempered, rude, demanding and immature. Both the bride and groom should know this ahead of time so that when they are off their best behavior, they will be prepared for the shock.

One of the secrets of keeping a marriage relationship deepening and becoming richer is recognizing when their mate is behaving as a child, unreasonably or immaturely, and that it will pass.
The only way the situation can be saved is to respond in a controlled mood, maturely as possible.

There is hope as long as one person keeps adulthood in control. When both persons resort to immature quarreling and acting as children, a great deal of damage can be done in a hurry. At moments like this, things can be said which can never be forgotten even though forgiven. Bitter seeds can be sown in such moments which all too often bear caustic fruit.

Dyche Stadium will never be the same. Because there's a whole new style of football at Northwestern.
Wildcat style.

Big, fast running backs. The Big Ten's leading receiver. And a team that's not afraid to surprise you.
That's what makes Northwestern football the most exciting game in Chicago and. Coach John Pont knows the fans like to see the ball move.

So, he's promised wide-open football this fall.

Add enthusiastic cheerleaders and pom-pom girls. Visiting bands to compete with the Wildcat Marching Band. The world baton twirling champion and tailgate picnics with friends. We've even renovated the stadium. You won't forget these five autumn afternoons. That's a promise.
Reserve your seats today. (Even though you'll be standing and cheering most of the time.) Season tickets save $2.50 over the individual game price. There are plenty of individual game seats, too. So, check the schedule. Dyche Stadium is easy to reach by car, CTA or Chicago & Northwestern Railroad.

When the Wildcats strike,
be there!

Flying a kite is not quite the carefree pastime it might seem with death from electrocution occurring from kites equipped with plain fiber string, wet from rain, and from fine radio wire used as string.

Injuries have also been suf-

Newhart Analyzed

By JOANNE B. ROMINE

Let's turn the tables on Bob Newhart (who weekly analyzes friends and patients on his TV show) and probe the inner depths of his psyche.

Bob truly does possess a desire to draw others out, to share thoughts and feelings, to explore the heights and depths of emotion. His desire to understand others is an aid to better understanding of himself.

He is a conservative person for the most part, and will only open up and discuss his innermost feelings when it can be a "sharing experience" with other people actively involved. Outside of this type of situation, he is reluctant to discuss his personal feelings and can, indeed, become inscrutable.

He is a warm, responsive person who can literally experience with friends and loved ones their joys and sorrows.

He is gentle, tender and sensitive, easily hurt by criticism. However, his desire for independent thinking far outweighs his sensitivity. So once he has made a decision to take action, he will proceed with or without the support and approval of others.

He has a capacity to quickly appraise facts, sift, sort and analyze information thus quickly bringing him to a point where he can offer good sound advice, or take positive, constructive action.

Because of this quick mental processing, it may appear to others that he is jumping to conclusions or acting on impulse. Such is not the case. He is not an impulsive person, nor is he inclined to make snap decisions.

The negative traits in his writing are minor, but do, nonetheless, influence the total personality. Being intensely emotional he is incapable of just shrugging things off. Influenced by the circumstances, he experiences the heights and the depths of emotion. When he is happy he is exhilarated. When he feels low, life may temporarily become a bottomless pit. In this frame of mind he is almost impossible to communicate with.

Add to this mood the mild defiance in his personality, and we then understand why, at times, this charming man can be most difficult.

One of the most outstanding characteristics about Bob, is his magnificent sense of humor, which, when activated can encompass all people and all things, including the ability to laugh at himself.
